Extract from the Proceedings of the 134th Meeting of the Council of His Highness the Maharaja, held at Bangalore on the 7th March 1906

I Subject (Clause V a of Schedule)

Status and pay of Mr D Sitarama Rao as Chairman of the Ellipse City Improvement Trust Board

Mr Sitarama Rao whose present pay is 750 Rs, also draws local and fixed travelling allowances of Rs 100/ each, making a total of 950 Rs. In a few months he will draw the usual biennial increment of 50 Rs. to his pay as Executive Engineer. He may therefore be seconded in the list of Executive Engineers and allowed to draw a Consolidated pay of 1000 Rs during the time he continues as Chairman of the Trust Board without any other allowances

(Signed) P. N Krishna Murti
Dewan of Mysore

12/3/06
Secretary

10 Submitted to His Highness.

Mr. Seetharama Rau, Chairman of the Mysore City Improvement Trust Board, has been constantly urging his case for promotion and requests to be given the rank of a Superintending Engineer with his emoluments

Mr. Seetharama Rau now draws Rs 950/- inclusive of a local and fixed travelling allowance of Rs 100/- each, and is eligible to draw his triennial increment of Rs 50/- as Executive Engineer within the next few months He has done excellent work during the period he has been in charge of the Trust Board, and the Chief Engineer has no objection to his being given the status and pay of a Superintending Engineer, Third class, so long as he continues as Chairman

M

In these circumstances, the Council is of opinion that a consolidated pay of Rs 1,000/- per mensem, may be allowed to Mr Seetharama Rau, without any other allowances, during the time he continues as Chairman This will not affect his contemporaries in the D P.W., in which list he will be seconded. The pay now recommended is as Chairman of the Trust Board and it is inexpedient to give him the rank and status of a Superintending Engineer, as such a course will affect his senior in the Department of Public Works. The recommendation of the Council may be sanctioned.
